Brown, the senior vice president of institutional advancement at Paine College, was charged with failure to maintain lane and driving under the influence of alcohol, according to the Richmond County Sheriff's Office.

Brown was booked into the Richmond County Jail at approximately 3 a.m. and has since been released on $1,540 bail.

According to the Paine College Web site, Brown – who received his bachelor's degree in history from Paine in 2000 – was hired on staff in 2008.

Brown currently serves on the Historic Augusta Board of Directors, according to his biography.
